REFRAIN

Let me linger in my memory's garden here, Let me dream that you will love me sometime, dear,
 Dreams, just in dreams there I meet you,
 You, if you could but care,
 Let me linger in the past a little while,
 Dreams of you will all my cares and pain
 beguile,
 In memory life is love's melody
 In my memory's garden here,
 Let me dream, dear.

REFRAIN

In flowing crowds, the moon-born clouds
Cast their light shade o'er stairs of jade,
And all the stars light,
Their ways are one,
Shining in love-light at set of sun—
Yet, who can read the night aright,
The deep dark myst'ry of the night,
I hear its love song,
Hear it the night long—
The myst'ry of the night.

Mother rocks her babe to sleep,
Lullaby Moon;
Little stars come out to peep
While she softly croons.
Hush, my baby,
Go to sleep,
Sand man's coming soon.
Sailing on to dreamland under lullaby moon

Sail away in silver boats on lake o' dreams
While the cricket sings his song by the drowsy streams;
Cuddle close to mother's breast, you'll be drifting soon;
Close your eyes and go to sleep,
Under Lullaby moon.

I am trusting in the promise
Christ has made to me;
I can hear His pray'rs of anguish,
From Gethsemane.
I am waiting in the shadows
To my Saviour cling,
Waiting, waiting, trusting still
He will comfort bring.

When the busy day is over,
When the night is still,
Thou who marks the sparrow's fall,
Be my comfort still.
In the lonely hours of sorrow
Benediction bring,
Thou, O Christ, the Rock of Ages,
Trustingly I cling.
